

The Australian Manufacturing Designer

Mark Alexander's message regarding Australian Furniture manufacturing and local interior design services, considering the nature of COVID-19 in Australia.

Supporting Design & Australian Based Manufacturing

Let's be positive, support Australian manufacturing and the local economy.

Mark Alexander Design is responsive to the current situation but is operating as usual. We remain accessible and ready to assist with any enquiries and on going work. We wish you and your families the best of health during this time.
